

"There are many things which have to be done behind the scenes to effectively perform a play in addition to the selection and rehearsing of a cast. When done well you don't usually notice them!"

David Harvey, stage manager and technical director

TUESDAY 13th OCT 7pm FOR 7.30pm

THEATRE PRODUCTIONS: WHAT HAPPENS OFF-STAGE?

led by David Harvey

About David

David has many years' experience of producing, staging and operating theatre productions and also managing theatre premises. He has worked in almost every role (including a tiny bit of acting). David is founding Chairman of STC, and a long-standing member of Network Theatre Company (NTC).

About the workshop

This event at Network Theatre in Waterloo will reveal the key behind the scenes activities and how to do them well, whilst touring a well-equipped working theatre space. (NTC's bar will be open for informal networking over a drink).

Location: Network Theatre is accessed via a service road under Waterloo Station see www.networktheatre.org/map for directions.

SECOND TUESDAY
EVENT

fun, relaxed and practical

on-site in a working amateur theatre

great for actors and show directors
alike

all abilities welcome -
no experience necessary

STC & NTC MEMBERS FREE
NON MEMBERS £3

Location:
Network Theatre (NTC),
246A Lower Road,
Waterloo,
London SE1 8SF

www.streathamtheatre.org.uk
events@streathamtheatre.org.uk 020 3432 5710