Launch Event!
Friday 19th April
7.30pm

Come along to our launch event to find out more about us, our plans and first show, and join us! We have a special membership offer on the night.

We're meeting at
The Stables,
White Lion,
232 Streatham High
Road,
London, SW16 1BB

The entrance to The Stables is through the door to the right of the bar, and across the courtyard. We'll be there to show you the way.

Launching Streatham's own 'open access' theatre company

Putting theatre back into Streatham

The Streatham Theatre Company aims to create opportunities for people in the area to gain real life theatre experience and practical skills across all aspects of creating and staging productions, such as writing, directing, lighting, sound, costume and make-up as well as acting. The group is open to all - theatre novices and theatre professionals.

Streatham was formerly known as the west end of south London in the days of Streatham Hill Theatre (now the bingo hall) and has a great heritage in theatre and performing arts. Simon Callow CBE and June Whitfield CBE were both born and brought up here; 'Homeland' and Hollywood actor David Harewood is a current resident - he has sent us his good wishes.

If you have always had a desire to 'tread the boards' or to help 'behind the scenes', and would like to join the group or get involved with the production then come to our launch event on 19th April at 7.30pm at The White Lion [more above right], contact info@streathamtheatre.org.uk, or telephone 020 3432 5710.

Even if you don't want to take part in productions, the company also plans to hold regular social events, with readings, quizzes etc.
