Theatre is back in Streatham

Much has happened since the successful launch of Streatham Theatre Company back in April when a room full of enthusiastic local theatre-lovers heard our plans and gave their feedback and support. We now have over 35 members, including patron Lord Michael Grade, nearly 120 friends on our mailing list and about 300 followers on Twitter and Facebook. We've started holding our regular events, and kicked off our first production "Then and Now".

Then and Now: you can still get involved

As a result of the recent auditions (more of a workshop than a formal audition really) we have a keen group of participants for this our first show. But we know not everyone was able to make the audition dates so there's still time for you to get involved on-stage or off-stage: just let the production team know by email thenandnow@streathamtheatre.org.uk and/or come along to our first rehearsal/meeting on 10th June at 6.30pm for a 7pm start at Vinters Studios, 1b Sunnyhill Road, SW16 2UG.

Second Tuesday events continue on 11th June

Our first regular "Second Tuesday" of the month had about 20 of us reading plays by Bernie Byrnes and Kirsty Eyre, and comic poems by Brenda Hargreaves, and was a very enjoyable evening for all. Our second event will be a free Improv workshop on 11th June given by Catherine Eaglestone, open to all levels of experience and ability including beginners. Do come along and join in - more about this on the right.

Streatham Kite Day 16th June

We'll have a stall, along with other local community groups, on the Common for the Kite Day. Come along and find out some more about us. If you're already a member or interested in being one, you can also help staff the stall. Just let us know how you help by emailing info@streathamtheatre.org.uk

We hope to see you at one of our events soon!
