We had major interest in our stall at the recent kite day, and welcome everyone who joined our mailing list.

All systems go for Then and Now!

Rehearsals are well underway for Then and Now and tickets are now on sale, so make sure you and your family, colleagues, neighbours, friends (and enemies!) have booked.

Then and Now has been created especially for the Streatham Festival, and will be performed on Saturday 13 & Sunday 14 July, with two shows each day at 6.30pm and 8.30pm.

Our writing team (Bernie Byrnes, Frances Bruce, Kirsty Eyre) has selected poems by prolific writer and local celebrity Brenda Hargreaves, and written theatrical responses to them. The poems will be read, and the scenes performed by our local cast, directed by Bernie Byrnes (assisted by Sally Lofthouse), with songs selected and sung by Alison Rycroft. The show combines humour and poignancy on the theme of past and present (then and now), with a flavour of Streatham's glamour days running through it.

What's next?

Our first production is not to be missed. Meanwhile we're already thinking about our next project, and your suggestions are very welcome. Drop us a line to info@streathamtheatre.org.uk

What types of theatre would you like to see in Streatham? Where would you like to see them?

Or what other events would you enjoy coming to? Like our recent free Improvisation workshop about which one participant said "What a great experience and I would have paid to attend that. A friendly, non judgemental group that allows you to explore your creativity and tap into your imagination."

Some improvisation from last month!

Our next
Second Tuesday event will be on July 12th
