Summer Holiday Boredom Buster

We will workshop a 5-10 minute pop up theatre piece to be performed at our next social event, and potentially other times and places.

Everyone should bring along one prop and one summer holiday story from childhood. We'll provide the holiday destination.

Your prop: anything to do with travelling.

Your story: an experience, an event that happened as a child on holiday.

You can take the role of yourself or, for example, one of the seagulls that devoured a defenceless tourist's fish and chips as they sat quayside.

Also bring what you drink!
