Neighbourhood Watch performances for Streatham Festival

This Friday 11th July and Saturday 12th July we present renowned playwright Alan Ayckbourn's very topical play - funny, thought-provoking, satirical, sad. The good intentions of the residents of Bluebell Hill lead to violence and acrimony. Tickets now on sale, only £8, concessions £5.

July's Second Tuesday event is postponed

As we are putting the final touches to Neighbourhood Watch, there's no event on 8th July. Instead we have

This Friday 11th
and Saturday

Streatham
Festival 2014

our performances on 11th & 12th, and the workshop on 27th.

27th July Meet 1pm @ Vinters - Site-specific Performance Workshop

Heini Vahtera (a graduate from Turku Art Academy, Finland in 2012 and recently arrived in Streatham). “Find your creativity and create a short site-specific performance piece on your home street, your favourite spot in the park, at a bus stop, or in a queue at the cash point. On this site-specific performance workshop you will be inspired by your surroundings and its natural phenomena. We will create small-scale scenes at places familiar to you. During the course you will get to know more about site-specific performance and the history of performance art through working examples.”

Free and open to all. Meet @ Vinters Studio 2, 1b Sunnyhill Road, SW16 2UG then we're out and about in Streatham.
