

A quick update from Streatham Theatre Company

View this in your browser

Rehearsed reading performances in May

Monday Monologues:

Talking Heads by Alan Bennett

Mondays 16th and 23rd May at 8pm

The Manor Arms, 13 Mitcham Lane, Streatham Green, London SW16 6LQ

Alan Bennett sealed his reputation as the master of observation with his series of ground breaking monologues, originally filmed for BBC Television. At once darkly comic, tragically poignant and wonderfully uplifting, Talking Heads is widely regarded as a modern classic.

Our production presents three selected monologues on each evening (not necessarily in this order), with an interval between monologues.

- May 16th: Soldiering On; A Chip in the Sugar; Her Big Chance

- May 23rd: A Lady of Letters; A Chip in the Sugar; Soldiering On

The Manor Arms have kindly provided their Round Room as our venue and have special offers on food and drink from 6pm, ideal for your pre-show dinner:

- Pizza and a drink for £10

- Two 8oz steaks and a bottle of house wine for £24.95

For tickets and details see our website

Breaking the Code by Hugh Whitemore

Saturday 21st May at 7.30pm (Doors 7pm)

Tooting Library, 75 Mitcham Road, London SW17 9PD

Alan Turing was the eccentric genius who helped break the complex German Enigma code, playing a major role in the winning of WW II. After the war Turing turned his scientific and mathematical genius to the concept of developing an 'electronic brain'; the first computer, which lead ultimately to today's smartphones and tablets.

Meanwhile, in his private life Turing was breaking another code: the taboo of homosexuality. In 1952 he was convicted of the criminal act of gross indecency and sentenced to undergo hormone treatments as part of his rehabilitation. He committed suicide in 1954.

This rehearsed reading is based on our performances of Hugh Whitemore's play at Streatham Festival (July 2015) and our rehearsed readings in St. Leonards on Sea (February 2016). It focuses on Turing the man, his personal moral code, the relationships that influenced his life and his struggle to appreciate the conventions and laws of 1950s society.

Also in Streatham

Not suitable for children.

For details see our website or on the Common on Sunday 15th May.

For more about STC, our events and productions, keep in touch online:

Copyright © 2016 Streatham Theatre Company, All rights reserved.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

