Streatham Festival

This year we have two shows, another theatrical tour of the historic Streatham Hill Theatre (aka Beacon Bingo) and a locally-set farce by south Londoner Ray Cooney.

14 June: Performing Shakespeare
Sorry, we have had to postpone this event to a new date to be advised.

20 June: Annual General Meeting
8pm at The Manor Arms

2 July: Shakespeare Plays: Bingo!
Tour of the historic Streatham Hill Theatre with snippets of Shakespeare for his 400th anniversary.
3.45pm (doors 3pm) to 5pm
then a free Bingo game.

Both are currently in rehearsal and you can get your tickets now. We advise buying tickets in advance as these events usually sell-out!

Run for Your Wife is a classic 1980's British farce by the master of farce Ray Cooney - a Clapham lad with several Aunties who lived in Streatham, who set this hilarious play in Streatham and Wimbledon.

Shakespeare Plays: Bingo has been developed especially by our members to celebrate Shakespeare's 400th anniversary, and combines a tour of the historic Streatham Hill Theatre with excerpts from the bard's plays which have been performed there.
