Shakespeare Plays: Bingo

Saturday 2nd July at 3.45pm (doors 3pm) until 5.30pm, followed by free game of Bingo!

Streatham Hill Theatre (Beacon Bingo), 110 Streatham Hill, London, SW2 4RD

To celebrate Shakespeare's 400th anniversary (of his death), Streatham Theatre Company will be presenting a tour of the historic Streatham Hill Theatre with snippets of scenes from his famous plays that have been performed there:

Merchant of Venice, Othello, Julius Caesar, Romeo & Juliet, Twelfth Night and Hamlet, plus a bonus scene from Macbeth (the Scottish play) not previously seen at this theatre.

This is a theatrical performance where anything might happen! You must be 18 or over to attend due to licensing restrictions. You will be entering non-public and unused areas of this listed building and must be able to climb stairs.

Run for Your Wife by Ray Cooney

Thursday 7th, Friday 8th and Saturday 9th July at 7.30pm (doors and bar 7pm)

Streatham Tate Library, 63 Streatham High Road, London SW16 1PN

1982, Streatham (and Wimbledon). At the end of each shift, taxi driver John Smith goes home to his wife in Streatham (or Wimbledon). Without mobile phones, the internet or the Uber app he gets away with it, until one day something goes wrong. Complication is piled upon complication as the cabby tries to keep his double life from exploding...

Following on from our recent popular Streatham Festival shows Neighbourhood Watch and Breaking the Code, STC presents Run for Your Wife, a classic 1980's farce from Ray Cooney which has had people rolling in the aisles all around the world ever since. Set partly in Streatham, this is the first production staged here.

"I'm delighted that Run For Your Wife is being performed in Streatham. Not only because half the play is set in Streatham but because I spent so much of my childhood there. My Auntie Rosie lived in Streatham and we saw her once a week. My Auntie Ivy lived in Streatham and we saw her once a week. My Auntie Phyllis lived in Streatham and we saw her once a week. I lived in Clapham with my Mum and Dad and we'd take the dog for a walk on Streatham Common. I was never out of Streatham! I love it." Ray Cooney
