Story-telling Workshop

Tuesday 11
October
Now at Streatham Hill
Theatre
(Beacon Bingo)

It's another busy time for theatre in Streatham:

* Storytelling Workshop, Tuesday 11 October, now at Beacon Bingo in a spooky spot behind the scenes in the old Streatham Hill Theatre. No booking required (but you must be 18+)

* We're taking a break from our Halloween event at Streatham Hill Theatre this year, but as well as our spooky story-telling workshop (above), we will be running a behind the scenes tour as part of Beacon Bingo's event on 26 November.

* Our friends at Streatham Sketch are running an event on Halloween at Streatham Hill Theatre and are looking for volunteers to dress up in Halloween costume. They are also looking for help on lighting or any costume (e.g. a Dracula suit and a very tiny 30's evening dress, flapper dress and some Victorian costume), and some blood and fangs! Please get in touch with Lee or Donna directly at lee@streathamsketch.uk

* Performances of our rescheduled 1980's farce Run for Your Wife will now take place on 10, 11 & 12 November at the Streatham Library. Tickets are on sale - we recommend buying in advance to avoid disappointment.

* Our November event will be reading pantomime scripts for our show in the new year. We've moved this to the third Tuesday 15 November to avoid clashing with Run for Your Wife.

* The new theatre being built as part of the megabowl redevelopment by London Square will be operated by ThinkTank, a new group of local theatre professionals. STC has been in touch with them about using the theatre when it's ready.

* Our programme of monthly events has now been published on our website up to April 2017 so do take a look and save the dates.

New performance
dates set:
10, 11 & 12
November.
Tickets now on sale
