Agatha Crusty (pronounced Croosty) is a crime novelist, adept at solving crimes. And when her sister-in-law Alice invites her to spend a few days with her in the village, it's not long before she gets caught up in a series of murders which seem directed at members of the Village Hall committee.

“More murders than Midsomer. As clueless as Clouseau.”

Streatham Shorts III

For the third year we are supporting new writing through our Streatham Shorts programme.

Invitation to writers

Ever thought about writing and directing a play, comedy sketch or monologue? Do you already have a piece that has never been aired?

STC is inviting submissions for STREATHAM SHORTS: an evening of short performances written and directed by new writers. Suitable pieces may be nominated to go forward for a public performance. Submissions (10 minutes maximum run-time) should be submitted no later than *Monday 20 August 2018.

Please email your script to info@streathamtheatre.org.uk with the subject 'Streatham Shorts'. Shortlisted pieces will be read at our "Second Tuesday workshop" on 11 September at 7.30pm. Selected writers will be notified and should ideally be available to present their piece. Last year several entries were performed by STC actors at our "Streatham's Got Talent" event at Exhibit B in December.

Invitation to workshop

This informal evening workshop on 11 September at 7.30pm will give writers a chance to hear their script come to life. Come along to read, act or simply listen. Bring your experience and feedback as an audience member, actor, director or stage manager to help writers improve the plot or characterisation and to consider practical aspects of its performance. Will STC find a new play to perform?
