

The latest news from Streatham Theatre Company

View this in your browser

Performances of our latest show 'Agatha Crusty & The Village Hall Murders' start on Thursday 21 June and continue until Saturday 23 June. Four performances only, one each evening and a matinee on Saturday.

From Toby, the Vicar, and Eleanor, Chair of the committee, to Harry Knott the caretaker and identical twins Olivia and Oliver Truscott-Pratt, there are plenty of suspects. And with an investigating officer as incompetent as D.I. Twigg, there are plenty of laughs as the murders begin to pile up.

But, while packed full of wit and very funny scenes, this is also a genuine murder mystery with an ingenious plot which will tax your grey matter at the same time!

Do come along to see us and meet up with other members and friends.

Get your tickets in advance here to avoid disappointment!

Agatha Crusty (pronounced Croosty) is a crime novelist, adept at solving crimes. And when her sister-in-law Alice invites her to spend a few days with her in the village, it's not long before she gets caught up in a series of murders which seem directed at members of the Village Hall committee.

“More murders than Midsomer. As clueless as Clouseau.”

June 21, 22, 23 at 7.30pm and June 23 at 3pm

At The British Home. More details and tickets £10 & £8 available here.
For more about STC, our events and productions, keep in touch online:

Copyright © 2018 Streatham Theatre Company, All rights reserved.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

