Jonathan Murray

We had some very sad news recently - our member Jonathan Murray has died suddenly at home. Jonathan played the Vicar in our recent production of Agatha Crusty and the Village Hall Murders and had been due to appear as the Mad Hatter in our forthcoming pantomime, which we dedicate to him. He was such a lovely man and will be sorely missed.

“If I had a world of my own, everything would be nonsense!”

It’s almost Easter-time, the March Hares and the White Rabbits abound the commons in the wonderland of Streatham, so it must be time for a pantomime!

Young Alice finds herself propelled down a rabbit hole into a weird wonderland populated by strange and exotic characters. She is joined in her adventures by Jack who has always had a ‘thing’ for Alice, and her mother Mabel who just has a ‘thing’... Will there be a happy ending?

Combining Lewis Carroll and the traditional pantomime this is great fun for all the family! STC, Streatham’s open-access theatre company, is back once again at the British Home for another fabulous, fun-packed pantomime.

11, 12, 13 April at 7.30pm

Matinee 13 April at 2.30pm

Doors and licensed bar 30 mins prior

The British Home, Crown Lane, Streatham, London SW16 3JB

Transport: Buses to Crown Point

Book tickets: £10 Adults | £8 Concessions | £5 for children under 16.

STC Monthly Events On the second Tuesday of the month

We hold regular events, such as readings, workshops and socials, which are usually free to members and only £3 for others.

There's no event in April as it clashes with our pantomime production (so please come along to that!).

The next planned event is:

- 14th May: Streatham's Theatrical Heritage: a presentation
