Play reading of "Sunday Morning at the Centre of the World"
A play for voices by Louis De Bernieres

7.00pm for 7.30pm at Vinters Studio

We are planning our contribution to this year's Streatham Festival. Louise de Bernieres (famous for his novel Captain Corell's Mandolin), once lived in Wandsworth. This short radio-style play, published in 2001, is set in South West London. Join us for an informal evening to read this light-hearted and amusing script depicting a cosmopolitan London suburb. If you love Under Milk Wood by Dylan Thomas, then this is a play for you.

No experience necessary - informal - fun

STC members free - Non-members £3
