Event 2: Tuesday 9th July

STC Second Tuesday event

Playback Theatre - an evening of improvisation

Bring memories, true stories and dreams for others to bring to life and 'playback' to you

led by Eirini Gerontaki

"Of course, we are not expecting to achieve this complete performance of Playback theatre in one workshop, but I believe it is a very challenging and interesting tester of its beauty"

Eirini - workshop facilitator

7.00pm for 7.30pm at Vinters Studio

LIFE IS FULL OF DRAMA

Playback theatre is an original form of improvisation theatre in which audience or group members share their true stories, memories, dreams, expectations, worries or whatever they want and watch them enacted on the spot by actors.

In a playback event, someone in the audience tells a moment or story from their life, chooses the actors to play the different roles and then all who are present watch the enactment as the story comes to life. It can be just physical, naturalistic dialogue, or even through music or songs. It is up to the acting ensemble.

Eirini is a trained actress and dancer from Greece, where she graduated with honours. She has acted in many television programmes, plays and films in Greece and also performed Playback theatre in an Athens theatre company. She came to London in 2013 where she completed a Masters degree in Physical Theatre at the London International School of performing Arts (LISPA). She currently teaches drama to children and has directed a play called TRENDY EMPATHY by Conor P. Carrol at the Tristan Bates Theatre.
