Reminder:

STC Streatham Festival Show 2019

- call for participants to perform

STC's next production is Sunday Morning at the Centre of the World by Louis de Bernières. This 'play for voices' will be performed to a live audience as part of the Streatham Festival in October.

Show performance dates:

Thursday 17th & Friday 18th October at 7.30pm
& Saturday 19th October at 2.30pm.

Show venue:

The Chapel at the British Home, Crown Lane, Streatham, SW16 3JB.

The script:

Written partly in homage to Dylan Thomas's Under Milk Wood, this play is a tragi-comic account of a few hours in the lives of some of Louis de Bernières' neighbours when he lived in Earlsfield during the 1980s writing Captain Corelli's Mandolin.

Call for participants to perform in for our Festival show:

Tuesday 17 September at 7pm for 7.30pm

Vinters Studio 2, 1b Sunnyhill Road, SW16 2UG

We would like anyone who wishes to take part to come along to this first session with director Alan Scott, where we will read the play. Parts will then be allocated ready for rehearsals to continue on Tuesdays and Thursdays from week beginning 23rd September.

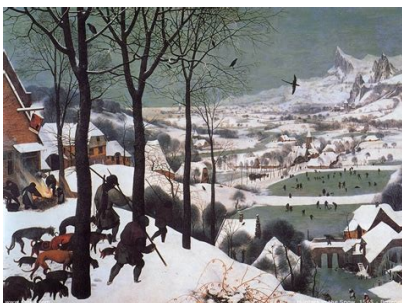

Note to participants:

As a play for voices you do not need to learn the lines - you will be able to see the script - rather you will rehearse the character and how they say those lines. It also means you do not have to look like the character portrayed, just be able to sound like them! You will be 'acting with your voice' (just like in a radio play)

Call event is free to all (18+), but if cast, you will need to pay a subscription to be an STC member (only £10 per annum).

 If you would like to be in the production but cannot be available this Tuesday 17th evening, please contact Alan Scott, director direct on 07710 317469  and finally ...

* watch out for details and auditions for our Winter production: Sisters in the Snow by US playwright Holly Johnson.

This is a tale of art, love, sibling rivalry and time-travel, - perfect for winter. This will be the UK premiere, directed by Helen Mason*
