

Performances of Consuming Passions: Friday 30th June & Saturday 1st July

We'll be performing Alan Ayckbourn's play, Consuming Passions this coming week. There are only 3 performances and tickets are selling well, so advanced booking is advised (though we will keep some tickets on the door for last minute decisions).

"A Hitchcockian thriller with wry wit, Consuming Passions was Alan Ayckbourn's 80th play, first performed in 2016."

"Melanie is having a frustrating evening - waiting for her party to join her at her favourite restaurant, one waiter is condescending towards her, while another ignores her completely. But events take a worse turn still when she seems to overhear a plot to murder an innocent man on his wedding anniversary. What can Melanie do about it, and is the situation quite what it appears anyway?"

Directed by Gabriel Kellett and starring Adam Turner, Caroline Moore, Ed Reeve and Sonya de Souza.

Fri 30th June at 8pm, Sat 1st July at 4pm and 8pm. Doors and bar 30 mins prior.
Immanuel & St. Andrews Church Hall, 452 Streatham High Road, London SW16 3PY
Adults £12, Concessions £10

Tickets now on sale and selling fast! Saturday's 8pm show has the best availability.
