August Second Tuesday Event: Singing Workshop led by Yvonne Bracken- Kemish Tuesday 8th August at 7.30pm

Yvonne, an excellent singer and singing tutor, leads a workshop for all levels of experience.

Yvonne will look at breathing, warm-ups, resonance, pitch and acting through song. She will also discuss modifying songs to suit the performer.

Yvonne will come prepared with songs we can look at as a group. Perhaps you would like to bring a song or part of a song – maybe one verse or one chorus – to work on in the session?

Please bring a hand mirror, if you have one, to look at your mouth, and a yoga mat or similar. This is for breathing exercises, though these can be done seated.

More information is available from our website at www.streathamtheatre.org.uk/jul-2023.

Tuesday 8th August, 7.30pm (doors 7pm)

Vinters Studio 2, 1b Sunnyhill Road, London SW16 2UG

Members free, others £3

Coming Up Next:

Yvonne's workshop will be a preparation for our show for the Streatham Festival at Immanuel and St. Andrews church hall on October 20th and 21st (dates to be confirmed), which will be a sing along to well-known songs from the musicals, following on from the success of last year's music and variety production No Turn Unstoned.
