Reminder: August Second Tuesday Event: Singing Workshop led by Yvonne Bracken-Kemish Tuesday 8th August at 7.30pm

Yvonne, an excellent singer and singing tutor, leads a workshop for all levels of experience.

Yvonne will look at breathing, warm-ups, resonance, pitch and acting through song. She will also discuss modifying songs to suit the performer.

Yvonne will come prepared with songs we can look at as a group. Perhaps you would like to bring a song or part of a song – maybe one verse or one chorus – to work on in the session?

Please bring a hand mirror, if you have one, to look at your mouth, and a yoga mat or similar. This is for breathing exercises, though these can be done seated.

Yvonne's workshop will be great preparation for our show for the Streatham Festival, see below...

Sing along to Songs from the Musicals: Our Streatham Festival Show!

During lockdown our Zoom Sing-Along-a-Musical evening was a huge success and our Music Hall and Variety Show, No Turn Unstoned from last year's Festival attracted big audiences and much praise. So Streatham Theatre Company will be presenting a live songs-from-the-musicals sing-along event for the Streatham Festival 2023, to be held once again at Immanuel and St Andrew's Church Hall on October 20th and 21st. (Dates to be confirmed).

A live band and singers will lead a sing-along of well-known and well-loved musical theatre songs - lyrics will be provided.

Do let us have your song suggestion for possible inclusion, but they must be songs specially written for theatre or film productions - none of that jukebox-musical junk! If you fancy leading a song you'll be encouraged and helped by our experienced singers.
