'Yerma' by Federico Garcia Lorca - at Network Next Week

Let's see a show together!

Yerma and Juan love each other but after several years of marriage they are childless and the pueblo has started to gossip. How will Yerma escape from the perils of her fate?

Come and see Network Theatre's classic Spanish play, which explores the lengths to which Yerma will go in her desperate desire for a child. The show is on from Wednesday July 10th to Saturday July 14th at 7.30 pm.

Our own Helen Mason has designed and built the set, and would love to know what you think!

From Page to Stage - Call for New Writing!

Our new writing showcase is back for Tuesday September 10th!

Streatham Shorts, our well-established September workshop for new writing, featuring unpublished sketches, monologues and short plays is back after last year's break, and we're on the hunt for unpublished sketches, monologues and short plays.

Send your script to us and if accepted we'll perform and discuss your work at our workshop on Tuesday 10th September at 7.30pm. Writers should ideally be available to introduce/ present their piece at the workshop.

Submissions (10 minutes maximum run-time) should be sent to info@streathamtheatre.org.uk titled "Streatham Shorts". Please include your name and contact details.

Please note: entries may also be subsequently performed by STC actors, for example at our Christmas "Streatham's Got Talent" event.

Upcoming Second Tuesday Event - A Directing Masterclass!

Consider yourself a could-be or would-be theatre director? Our upcoming workshop Tips for a successful show - approaches to the director's role in community theatre and the team behind the scenes, could be of interest!

Several STC directors explain how being a director is not just about directing the actors to deliver their best performance on stage, and will share their approaches, challenges and lessons learned.

All directors work differently, but in general alongside the actors, a theatre show will have a production team of people bringing different technical skills and expertise. This helps share the load and provides an opportunity to discuss different artistic approaches. The director is often the person that builds this team and is the link person to all members of the team across the rehearsal and performance period.

Date to be announced (provisionally November 12th)

Take Part in Events Throughout the Year!

Remember our Second Tuesday events take place on the second Tuesday of each month - save those dates in your diary!

- July 9th - AGM and Social
- August 13th - tbc
- September 10th - Streatham Shorts - From Page to Stage
- October - Streatham Festival show, tbc
- November 12th - Directing Masterclass
- December 10th - Streatham's (Still) Got Talent

As well as providing interesting readings, workshops and talks, our events are a great way of keeping in touch with others from STC. They are usually free to members and only £5 to others, so please do come along.

Keep a look out for our emails or check our website for details of planned events coming up next year.

These events are kindly run by volunteers from STC or our friends in show business.

You can join us or renew your subscriptions at events too - at only £10 a year to subscribe, it quickly pays itself back due to free admission to events and discount performance tickets, and helps us keep theatre in Streatham.
