Come and see our next production, the topical God of Carnage by Yasmina Reza. Set in modern-day Paris, God of Carnage tells the story of what happens when two very different couples get together to resolve things after one couple's son seriously injures the son of the other couple in a playground brawl. The play is sharply observed and very funny. It was a hit when shown at the Lyric Theatre, Hammersmith, last year.

The show will be performed at Goldfinch Primary School, 21 Cunliffe Street, SW16 6DS, from Thursday May 30th to Saturday June 1st.

We have four performances, including a Saturday matinee. See our website for more info and tickets.

Fancy a Free Ticket? Volunteer for Front of House!

For each show ideally we'd like 4 people, 2 on tickets and programmes and 2 to help on the bar. Please let us know which nights you can (or can't) make and what you'd prefer to do. All volunteers see the play for free. Everyone welcome. Please contact us by Friday May 24th, if at all possible, at info@streathamtheatre.org.uk, so we can co-ordinate a rota.

Performance times are:

- Evenings (Thursday, Friday, Saturday): 7.30 pm
- Matinee (Saturday) 3.30 pm

The doors open 30 minutes before, and so we'd like people to arrive around 6.30 to 6.45 for the evening shows, and 2.30 to 2.45 for the matinee.

A Midsummer Night's Dream - Casting Call

Robin Bracken-Kemish, one of our members, is directing A Midsummer Night's Dream at The Cryer Arts Centre in Carshalton on the 16th and 17th August. (3 performances: Friday evening, Saturday matinee + evening). Robin has asked us to include this casting call.

You must be available for a dress rehearsal on the 15th, but otherwise rehearsals will be flexible and can work around your availability.

Rehearsals will start online at the end of May to beginning of June, then move to in person in/near Carshalton for the rest of June and July.

This is an amateur production and no payment or travel compensation etc will be made to actors. However there will also be no membership or show fees involved in taking part! You may be asked to provide parts of your own costume if you are able to.
