Come and see our next production, the topical God of Carnage by Yasmina Reza. Set in modern-day Paris. God of Carnage tells the story of what happens when two very different modern day, and, God of Carnage tells the story of what happens when two very different couples get together to resolve things after one couple's son seriously injures the son of the other couple in a playground brawl. The play is sharply observed and very funny. It was a hit when shown at the Lyric Theatre, Hammersmith, last year.

The show will be performed at Goldfinch Primary School, 21 Cunliffe Street, SW16 6DS, from Thursday May 30th to Saturday June 1st.

We have four performances, including a Saturday matinee. See our website for more info and tickets.

Can you help out with Front of House?

We are looking for volunteers to help with Front of House: working behind the bar and selling tickets and programmes. All volunteers see the play for free. Please contact us at info@streathamtheatre.org.uk.

Day Time Play Readings

Our recent daytime reading of Home I'm Darling by Laura Wade at Carvalho's Café proved to be a great success, and we plan to do it again in a few month's time, but at the later time of 4pm or 4.30 pm (to be confirmed).

Subsequent events will be free to STC members and £3 to non-members. The emphasis will be on feel-good, uplifting and comedic material. A group leader will facilitate the event and encourage people to get the most out of it as possible. Participants will be invited to suggest plays, and we will provide the scripts. If you are interested or for any enquiries, please email us on playreadings@streathamtheatre.org.uk.

Streatham Common Kite Day, May 12th

We're looking forward to meeting you on our stall on Streatham Common for Kite Day, Come and find out more about our activities and tell us what you would like to get involved in.

We're also looking for volunteers to help on the stall to engage with anyone interested in becoming involved in the group. Please contact us at info@streathamtheatre.org.uk.

No May Second Tuesday Event This Year

As May the 14th is so close to Kite Day on the 12th, and with God of Carnage playing at the end of May, there is no second Tuesday event in May this year. Instead, do come and see us on our Kite Day stall and also of course book your tickets to see God of Carnage, which promises to be an excellent show.

11th June Event - Being Heard and Telling Stories

Our second Tuesday 11th June event will be 'Being heard and Telling Stories' by Nico Pollen, storyteller and performer.

The workshop will focus on techniques to improve performance including voice projection and storytelling. More information on our website!

Take Part in Events Throughout the Year!

Remember our Second Tuesday events take place on the second Tuesday of each month - save those dates in your diary!

As well as providing interesting readings, workshops and talks, our events are a great way of keeping in touch with others from STC. They are usually free to members and only £5 to others, so please do come along.

Keep a look out for our emails or check our website for details of planned events coming up next year.

These events are kindly run by volunteers from STC or our friends in show business.

You can join us or renew your subscriptions at events too - at only £10 a year to subscribe, it quickly pays itself back due to free admission to events and discount performance tickets, and helps us keep theatre in Streatham.

Any questions, please contact us at info@streathamtheatre.org.uk.
