Well on Track for our April Show!

Rehearsals for Accidental Death of an Anarchist are going well and the actors are enjoying getting to grips with their roles, especially our American cast member, J.C. Nix: 'It's like a dream come true! I'm finally a real actor in real England!'

More cast quotes next time!

And not only the cast are getting involved. Here's David Harvey, our esteemed Chair and the show's Technical Manager, doing an impression of the Anarchist at a recent rehearsal.

Monologues Event - Tomorrow, March 11th

We're SPRINGing back to basics! Perform your favourite monologue, as simple as that. It can be your own writing or anyone else's.

Dame Judi Dench on monologues:

"My old drama teacher used to say that "a monologue is a duologue where the other person happens to not say anything."

I think that's very good. Because in order to make somebody hear, you regard what they're doing, and it's their behaviour that makes you change. People think listening is what you do when you have nothing to say, but you're often listening and observing whilst you are speaking - gauging the other person's reactions to see if you need to carry on urging them."

(from SHAKESPEARE the Man who Pays the Rent by Judi Dench with Brendan O'Hea 2023)

Please let us know in advance what you want to bring, and give an estimated run time.

Tuesday March 11th at 7.30 pm (doors open 7 pm).

Members Free, others £5 at the door.

Vinters Studio 2, 1b Sunnyhill Road, SW16 2UG
