Streatham Theatre Company presents

Alice in Wonderland

It's almost Easter-time, the March Hares and the White Rabbits abound the commons in the wonderland of Streatham, so it must be time for a pantomime!

Young Alice finds herself propelled down a rabbit hole into a weird wonderland populated by strange and exotic characters. She is joined in her adventures by Jack who has always had a 'thing' for Alice, and her mother Mabel who just has a 'thing'... Will there be a happy ending?

Combining Lewis Carroll and the traditional pantomime this is great fun for all the family! STC, Streatham's open-access theatre company, is back once again at the British Home for another fabulous, fun-packed pantomime.
