Welcome from the Chairman

You are very welcome to our first pantomime, oh yes you are!

As we approach our second anniversary in April, we continue to add to the variety of theatre we bring to Streatham. From scenes created from local history, to radio shows, scripts by established playwrights, and a dramatised tour of Streatham Hill Theatre, we now add traditional pantomime.

Our shows are put together by amateurs, who are involved in theatre for the love of it and strive to deliver a great experience for our audiences while having a good time themselves. Along the way we have been helped by professionals who have shared their expertise and experience - we thank them all.

Cinderella is directed by our member Nigel Haynes, and co-written with his writing partner Adrienne Power, who both kindly made it available to us. Nigel has a few words to say about the show below.

I hope you enjoy the show, and that you continue to support STC into the future. We hope to see you at some of our future events.

David Harvey

Director's Notes

Cinderella is one of the great fairytales, as well as being the most famous of all pantomimes. It is a story that lies at the heart of all our childhoods. Therefore I am delighted to have been given the opportunity to direct this show and to work with our fantastic cast and crew who have helped bring this show to life.

So without further ado, welcome to our world of magic and make believe; will Cinderella find her Prince Charming? Will her wicked Stepmother and her Ugly Sisters get what they deserve? Well, that's up to you - prepare to sing along, to boo the baddies, and cheer the goodies but most of all: we hope you have as much fun watching the show as we've had putting it on. Thank you for your support.

Nigel Haynes
