

Hamlet off the Street – Audition Dates Announced!

Shakespeare's greatest play (probably) comes to Streatham!

You may have heard we're planning to perform our specially adapted version of Hamlet as our first single play foray into Shakespeare's world. You may have attended our April workshop, 'Shakespeare from Page to Stage' led by Mhairi Grealis. Well now it's time to get going. We're announcing our audition dates in good time for performances at the end of September, hopefully in St. Leonard's Church (subject to agreement).

Come and try out on Wednesday June 6th or Friday June 8th from 7pm to 9pm or Sunday June 10th from 3 pm to 5pm at Vinters Studios, 1b Sunnyhill Road, SW16 2UG.

Don't worry if you've never acted Shakespeare before or you don't identify as male! Just come along and have a go. Casting will be gender-blind, as far as possible.

We're going to spend a lot of time at the beginning of the rehearsal process making sure the words make sense to everyone. Every one cast will be given all the help they need to shine!

There are a few small speaking parts, some non-speaking parts and even dancers required. See the full character list here.

This version of Hamlet has been specially abridged and adapted for us, so there'll be plenty of opportunity for everyone to contribute ideas on all aspects of the show, from staging and text to costume, props and music.

Hoping that lots of you will come along to see what it's all about!
